PAK Oasis - The Largest Drinking Water providing Company in Pakistan Signs the UN Global Compact

Pak Oasis has signed the United Nations Global Compact (UNGC) at an impressive ceremony held at Hotel Sheraton, Karachi on Wednesday 19-December-2012.

The ceremony was attended among others by President of United Nations Global Compact Network Pakistan Ahsanullah Khan, Chairman Pak Oasis, Syed Omar Abbass Jilani, Secretary Global Compact Network Pakistan, Fasihul Karim Siddiqi and others.

The UNGC is a set of 10 Principles in the areas of Human Rights, Labour, Environment and Anti-Corruption. In signing the UN Global Compact, Pak Oasis has publically declared its support to further these important core value.

Addressing the ceremony, Chairman PAK Oasis Syed Omar Abbas Jilani said that his company was the largest company in Asia dealing water related issues.

"PAK Oasis is providing safe and clean drinking water to the masses in various parts of country" he said. Appreciating the role of Sindh Government in its endeavour to provide safe and clean drinking in the province, he said that Pakistan was doing more rather than developed countries in achieving green and safe emissions. He said that Pak Oasis had setup 500 plants in rural area of Sindh.

President of UN Global Compact Pakistan Network, Ahsanullah Khan congratulated Pak Oasis on signing UNGC. He said that more Pakistani companies would also join hands with Global Compact Pakistan Network to achieve the set of goals.

Secretary of UN Global Compact Pakistan Network, Fasihul Karim Siddiqi in his speech highlighted the 10 Principles of UN Global Compact. He said that Principles of UN Global Compact were launched in the year 2000 by the then Secretary General Koofi Anan derived from the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the ILO's Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Right at Work, the Rio declaration on Environment & Development and the United Nation's Convention against Corruption.

"The Global Compact, as a voluntary initiative to promote sustainable development and good corporate citizenship has succeeded during the last decade in developing a network of companies and stakeholders now numbering around 8000 in over 135 countries and the current UN Secretary General is targeting to bring 20,000 companies within UNGCs ambit by the year 2020", he said. In Pakistan so far 140 companies have signed the Global Compact and the Network is aiming at bringing this number to above 300 through the Membership growth campaign launched countrywide. Mr.Siddiqi said the initiative of PAK Oasis joining the Global Compact will boost our efforts to inspire other business organizations to follow the suit.

Earlier, David James, International Trade Manager of Pak OASIS, made a presentation on the initiative taken by PAK Oasis in implementing the 10 Principles of Global Compact within the organization as a part of its vision to link the company's business strategies with the millennium development goals. Mr. Saleem Abbas Jilani, Mr. Sohail P Ahmed, Vice Chairman House of Habib and others also spoke on the occasion.

Federal Secretary HRD Ahsan Raja and Senator Nilofar Bakhtiar urge Business, Government, Academia and Civil Society to support UNGC Principles 28 Organizations sign the UNGC Charter at the Islamabad Conference.

Adherence to the UNGC principles offers unique opportunity to business, govt, academia and civil society to join hands and contribute to sustainable economic and social development to take the country and the business out of the most testing and challenging time of its history. This was jointly urged by Mr. Ahsan Raja, Federal Secretary Ministry of HRD and Senator. Nilofar Bakhtiar, in their inaugural addresses at the 4th National Global Compact Conference organised by Global Compact Network Pakistan in collaboration with Islamabad Chamber of Commerce and Industry, Employers Federation of Pakistan and FPCCI on 31st January 2013 at Serena Hotel, Islamabad.

The Conference which was largely attended by around 100 CEOs and representatives of academia, Govt and Civil society proved a tremendous success when Senator Nilofar Bakhtiar along with heads of 28 organizations sent a strong positive message to the business community by signing the UNGC charter symbolising their voluntary commitment to embed the 10 UNGC Principles in the work culture of their respective organizations as a tool for sustainable development.

Earlier Mr. Imtiaz Rastgar the Conference Convener welcomed the participants and expressed the hope that the outcome of this Conference will have far reaching impact on the ways in which our business can meet challenges posed by current economic, political and more prominently the security concerns.

Mr. Ahsan Ullah Khan, President Pakistan Network Steering Committee said that after the failure of many 'Isms' such as capitalism, communism and socialism, the UNGC Principles provide business the last resort to a new dimension of 'Humanism' as a unique approach to address to the changing socio economic scenarios of modern business.

Mr. Khawaja Muhammad Nauman, President of the Employer's Federation of Pakistan in his remarks expressed satisfaction over the fact that UNGC was a truly employers-led initiative in Pakistan, which was promoting UNGC Principles in Pakistani organizations with a very high sense of selfless commitment. Referring to the research conducted by the Network to trace the origins of UNGC Principles in the teachings of Quran and Islam, Mr. Nauman urged upon business to have a special reason for embracing these Principles since they reflect the implementation of true Islamic values for business sustainability.

Mr. Zafar Bakhtawri, the President of Islamabad Chamber of Commerce and Industry, In his remarks extended the full cooperation of the Chamber in persuading more and more members to join the Global Compact, because of the benefits it can bring to business for sustaining itself.

Ms. Margrette Reade Rounds representing the ILO Directors office in Islamabad emphasised upon the need for business to uphold the principles relating to human rights and labour rights which constituted 60 % of the UNGC Principles and were strongly backed by International Labour standards developed by the ILO through its constituent partners namely the Govt. Employers and workers.

Mr. Shoukat Ali, President All Pakistan Trade Union Congress and GCNP Steering Committee Member, in his remarks stated that the Principles of Global Compact can be more effectively and efficiently translated into working realities through meaningful partnership with the workers as effective stakeholder in the issues of business sustainability.

Mr. Fasihul Karim Siddiqi, Secretary Global Compact Network Pakistan while explaining the objectives of this Conference highlighted how embracing the 10 Principles of UNGC can help organizations in finding innovative solutions to issues confronting business. He stressed upon the need of doing 'business as unusual' which is a paradigm shift from the traditional concept of doing 'business as usual'. This process can be facilitated if business enterprises embrace the UNGC Principles to develop their social values which eventually help organizations to sustain themselves in their effort to use globalizations as an opportunity rather than a threat. Mr. Siddiqi informed the meeting about the Network initiative to launch a national campaign to increase UNGC membership with a target of 300 signatories by June 2013 and made a clarinet call to business community to join the UNGC membership which will particularly contribute to building positive brand image of Pakistani business at the Global Level.

Mr Tariq Cheema, Founder of the World Congress of Muslim Philanthropists, a renowned Pakistani American businessman ranked among 500 most influential Muslims impacting the world today, in his remarks on the occasion highlighted the global economic trends of increase in wealth without corresponding decrease in poverty. He held the view that the business by embedding the UNGC principles may help governments, in a big way, particularly in this part of the world, in achieving the Millennium Development goals including poverty reduction.

GLOBAL COMPACT Network Pakistan

The business session of the Conference comprising of a panel discussion on the theme of 'How Govt, Business and Civil Society could join hands to promote UNGC Principles as a sustainable tool of universal corporate citizenship'. The panellists comprising of Mirza Raza Ali, Director Newports Institute of Communication and Economics and CEO LCI Pakistan, Ms. Maliha Malik and Brig (R). Niazi from Fauji Fertilizers, Dr. Sabur Ghayur Consultant Policy Development in Public and Private sector, Mr. Salman Mansoor, District Governor LCI 305 N2, Ms. Nareeta Farhan from the Ministry of Defence Production, Mr. Farooq Khokhar, Director Institute of Space technology Islamabad and Ms. Ambreen Waheed, Founder Director RBI generated very interesting discussion on the subject from the diverse stake holder perspective followed by a lively question answer session with active participation from the audience.

Mr. Haji Mohammd Javed, Senior Vice President GCNP Steering Committee, there after conducted the UNGC Charter Signing Ceremony emotionally calling upon the business community present in the meeting to come forward and sign the UNGC Charter to demonstrate their personal commitment to CSR and social sustainability. CEOs of good number around 28 business and non-business organizations responded to his call and signed the UNGC Charter in presence of the Chief Guest Mr. Ahsan Raja, the Federal Secretary of HRD, Govt. Of Pakistan and Senator Nilofar Bakhtiar.

Mirza Raza Ali, Director Newports Institute, a Global Compact activist and a member of the Global team of world renowned Academicians developing PRME for Higher education started the National Conference proceedings with recitation from the Holy Quran, meticulously moderated the inaugural session, led the panel discussion in the Business Session and offered the concluding vote of thanks followed by lunch.

GOVERNOR & MINISTER KPK ASSURE GOVERNMENT'S SUPPORT TO BUSINESS IN PROMOTING UNGC PRINCIPLES: TWENTY FIVE KPK BUSINESS ORGANISATIONS VOW FOR PEACE BY SIGNING UNGC

Governor, KPK Engineer Shaukat ullah Khan, in his message read out to the delegates of the 5th National Global Compact Conference at Peshawar assured that Government will extend its full support to business in embracing the ten principles of UNGC as it will help business in attaining sustainability and building their capacity to contribute to peace by generating decent employment and improving quality of life.

Nawabzada Mehmud Zeb, KPK Minister for Technical Education, Manpower Training, Mines and Minerals speaking as the Chief Guest emphasised upon the need for Government -Business cooperation in legislation for implementing rules of responsible business. He complimented the business in KPK for boldly confronting the hazards of terrorism and expressed the hope that they will continue to play their vibrant role in bringing peace to this conflict affected province through their responsible actions for which the UNGC principles provide tremendous opportunities.

The National Global Compact Conference organised by Global Compact Network Pakistan in collaboration with Employers Federation of Pakistan and KPK Chamber of Commerce and Industry was attended by a large number of representatives from Business, Government, Academia, NGOs and civil society drawn from the capital city of the most conflict affected province of Pakistan.

Mr. Ahsanullah Khan, President of the Network called upon business to embrace the ten principles of UNGC also because it will enable them to pursue and practice "humanism" as the most effective tool of sustainability after the failure of capitalism, communism and socialism.

Earlier, Mr. Haji Muhammed Javed, the Conference Convener and Sr. Vice President GCNP welcoming the guests and participants of the Conference, said that despite passing through its most trying and testing times of socio economic turbulence, the business in this most conflict ridden province of Pakistan was conscious of its responsible role in bringing peace and today's successful Conference demonstrates their unqualified readiness to respond effectively to meet the rising challenges. He emphasised that as the Network research shows, the ten principles of UNGC are closest to Islamic values of business as their origin may be traced in the Holy Quran and teachings of our religion, Islam. These principles guide us to run business according to the rules and practices enshrined in the Quran and Sunnah and expressed the hope that business community of KPK will positively respond to the UNGC call in the same spirit.

Dr. Muhammad Yusuf Sarwar, President, KPK Chamber of Commerce & Industry explained in detail the ten principles of UNGC and said that these were natural values to strengthen business capacity to connect itself with profit and community. He assured that KPK Chamber will join the Network efforts to inspire business in KPK province to act responsibly by joining the UNGC in the larger interest of their own sustainability.

Mr. Abdullah, Ex-Chief Secretary, KPK in his key note address termed globalisation as the new way of living together. Emphasising upon the globalization's focus on 'benefit of the common people' he urged upon UNGC to build a strong edifice for business values and practices and its widest possible dissemination so that business may embrace them to get full advantage of the fruits of globalization.

Mr. Fasihul Karim Siddiqi, Secretary of the Network, appreciated the role of business in promoting peace demonstrated by their collective effort through the Skill Development Council in which around 10,000 youth in the earthquake and flood ridden province of KPK were provided employable skills to enable them to support and rehabilitate the affected families. He called upon the business community of KPK to send a strong and positive message to the outside world not to be misled by negative propaganda and that by joining UNGC and becoming part of the global initiative, sustainable business in Pakistan provided a conducive environment for responsible investment by global investors.

Responding to the Network's clarion call, 25 organisations from Peshawar including six led by businesswomen expressed their instant commitment to vow for peace by signing for embracing the UNGC. Prominent companies such as Pakistan Tobacco, Pepsi Co, Khyber Bank, Cherat Cement, Bryon Pharmaceuticals,

Private Sector Stakeholders Conference calls upon Political parties to include MDGs and Post-2015 Development Agenda in their election manifesto to build a New & Neat Pakistan

Karachi 21st, March 2013, Private Sector Stakeholders Consultation Meeting held in Karachi, yesterday reviewed the poor performance of the government in achieving the MDG Goals and targets and observed that much of the reasons for failure in achieving MDG Goals and Targets can be attributed to lack of Political will, ignorance of social sector development priorities, rising corruption and overall poor governance in planning infra structural resources and managing Public Administration in the last 5 to 7 years.

It was depressing to note that out of the total of 41 MDGs targets, Pakistan has been on target only on 8, was off track on 25 targets and no progress was known on the remaining 8 by the federal and provincial government.

The Consultation Meeting observed that with the devolution of power to the provinces as a result of the 18th Constitutional Amendment and the likelihood of emergence of new political will as a result of the forthcoming general elections in the country May this year, there are chances that if adequate measures are taken for economic and industrial revival along with a more pragmatic approach towards combating the challenge of internal terrorism coupled with balanced international diplomacy with a focus on exploring the lost opportunities of revamping the social sector under a crash program, the missing goals of MDGs may be approached, if not fully met, by the year 2015.

The Private Sector Stakeholders Consultation Meeting was organised by the Global Compact Network Pakistan in collaboration with Employers' Federation of Pakistan and was attended by cross section of representatives from Business bodies, Academia, NGOs and Civil Society.

Mr. Ahsan Ullah Kahan, President Global Compact Network Pakistan, Mr. Pervaiz Ghias, CEO Indus Motor Company, Mr. Sohail P. Ahmad, Vice Chairman House of Habib, Mr. Khawaja Muhammad Nauman, President Employers Federation of Pakistan, and Mr. Shouket Ali, President Trade Union Congress in their speeches urged that the focus in the remaining period from now and 2015 and the post 2015 Development Agenda for Pakistan must be on achieving socio-economic and political stability and sustainable development which could be achieved by pursuing a SE program in the areas of Economy, Employment, Energy, Environment and Empowerment.

Mr. Ghazi Salauddin Media Icon, advocated for identifying the knowledge deficit the freedom deficit ingrained in basic human rights and freedom from want and fear and the deficit in the status of women to be at the foundation of evolving the future development agenda for Pakistan.

Mr. Majyd Aziz, Ex President KCCI and Dr. Shahida Saleem Advisor FPCCI urged upon a strong private public partnership for taking the MDGs goals more seriously and the national talent available in abundance must be used in strengthening the planning commission to play its due role in implementing the national development agenda.

Dr. Mustaghees ur rehman of SZABIST and Mr. Mirza Raza Ali, Council Chairman of Lions Club International emphasised upon the need for actively engaging the community and the academia for strengthening ownership of the development agenda by focusing on education and entrepreneurship development at the centre stage of socio economic planning.

Mr. Fasihul Karim Siddiqi, Secretary Global Compact Network Pakistan wrapping up the discussions termed it imperative that a strong public-private partnership be developed in Pakistan on a National Compact Agenda of economic, industrial and social growth with a 2030 vision. Supported with a strong political will, an Inter-Ministerial Coordination Committee led by business should be made responsible for implementing and monitoring the agenda with accountability to the national parliament.

Mr. Siddiqi appealed to all stakeholders including Business bodies, Academia Workers NGOs and Civil Society to form a larger consortium to support the Employers Federation of Pakistan and the Global Compact Network Pakistan in launching a National Development Agenda for parleys with political parties in the next few weeks to prevail upon them to include MDGs and post-2015 Development Agenda in their election manifestos so that their political will and commitment may be invoked for achieving the above objectives.

GLOBAL COMPACT Network Pakistan

"This alone will help us achieve our goals of generating decent employment in industry and agriculture, reviving its economy and industry, generating decent employment, improving the quality of life of all citizens, uplifting the qualities of educated youth as the most important human asset, empowering women as equal partner in growth and development, raising the bar of performance standard of public and private administration, free of corruption and led by good governance. This requires a collaborative spirit of engaging the business the workers, the youth, the women, the civil society and the government in a fresh resolve to build a NEW and NEAT PAKISTAN." He concluded.

THE FIVE POINT POST 2015 DEVELOPMENT AGENDA (5Es) PROPOSED BY GLOBAL COMPACT NETWORK PAKISTAN & EFP

The focus in the post 2015 development agenda for Pakistan must be on achieving socio-economic and political stability and sustainable development. Which could be achieved by pursuing a 5 E program in the areas of Economy, Employment, Energy, Environment and Empowerment, Following broad initiatives in each of the above FIVE areas were recommended:-

- a. ECONOMY:- the country must revert to developing 5-year Plans focusing on poverty alleviation through industrial development in the manufacturing and aggro based industrial sector supported by a responsible investment Policy inviting FDIs and one window operation for those starting new business or expanding current businesses
- b. EMPLOYMENT:- a long term responsible Industrial and labor policy focusing on generating employment, enhancing skills and responsible education including responsible management education, promoting decent work be developed through consultations with tripartite partners aiming at a balanced employee welfare and safety net linked with enterprise productivity.
- c. ENERGY:- a long term energy policy catering for current and future industrial needs coupled with a comprehensive infrastructural support policy to industry, agro-based and indigenous industries.
- d. ENVIRONMENT:- a comprehensive environmental policy to combat air, water and noise pollution and effects of climate change particularly experienced in the last earthquake and flood disasters be developed with an effective monitoring mechanism in consultation with stakeholders
- e. EMPOWERMENT:- a national policy of empowering women, youth and corruption free good governance across the board with a comprehensive implementation plan and measurable outcome indicators embedded with a strong political will and national legislation can alone be the guarantee for the much desired level of socio economic growth in the post 2015 scenario.

Pakistan still to meet 25 MDG targets

KARACHI: The Global Compact Network Pakistan in collaboration with Employers' Federation of Pakistan organised a Private Sector/Stakeholders Consultation conference on Post-2015 Development Agenda the other day in a local hotel.

The conference reviewed the poor performance of the government in achieving the Millennium Development Goals (MDG) goals and targets and observed that much of the reasons for failure in achieving MDG goals and targets can be attributed to lack of political will, ignorance of social sector development priorities, rising corruption and overall poor governance in planning infrastructural resources and managing public administration in the last seven years. It was depressing to note that out of the total 41 MDG targets, Pakistan has met only 8 and it remained off track on 25 targets and no progress was known on the remaining 8 by the federal and provincial government.

The conference observed that with the devolution of power to the provinces as a result of the 18th Constitutional amendment and the likelihood of emergence of new political will, there are chances if adequate measures are taken for economic and industrial revival.

along with a more programmatic approach towards combating the challenge of internal terrorism coupled with balanced international diplomacy, the missing goals of MDGs may be approached, if not fully met, by the year 2015.

President Global Compact Network Pakistan Ahsan Ullah Khan, CEO Indus Motor Company Pervaiz Ghias, and others urged in their speeches that the focus in remaining period onwards and 2015 and the post 2015 Development Agenda of Pakistan must be on achieving socio-economic and political stability and sustainable development.

Equality means Business: Principles of Women Empowerment launched by UN Global Compact Network Pakistan

Business, academia and civil society support empowering of women to participate fully in economic life in all sector and levels of economic activity as an essential initiative for establishing a stable and just society in Pakistan as the Seven Principles of Women Empowerment under the theme "Equality Means Business" were launched by Global Compact Network Pakistan and Employers Federation of Pakistan in an impressive ceremony at the North Nazimabad campus of the Newports Institute.

Mr. Sohail Ahmed, Vice Chairman, House of Habibs in his key note speech on the eve of the launching of the principles of Women Empowerment emphasized that instead of putting women in womanly jobs, business should be more family friendly for creating an environment in which women can freely think, operate and contribute to business growth and sustainability.

Mr. Ahsanullah Khan, the President of the Steering Committee in his inaugural address said the launching of the seven principles of women empowerment in Pakistan, aimed to help the private sector to focus on key elements integral to promoting gender equality at the work place, market place and community.

Dr. Shahida Saleem, Advisor FPCCI (Federation of Pakistan Chamber of Commerce and Industry, the apex body of employers in Pakistan) said that empowerment is the sum total of means plus skills plus accountability and business in order to empower women must provide all the three to optimise from their potential to contribute to its meaningful growth. She assured full support of the FPCCI in helping private sector to play its pivotal role in embracing the principles of women empowerment.

Prof. Dr. Shahida Sajjad, representing the Employers Federation of Pakistan quoted global instances of how business were benefiting themselves by empowering women. Companies have been able to achieve more than 30% profit due to women who genetically work with partnership, she said.

Mr. Shaukat Ali, President, All Pakistan Trade Union Congress urged for more induction of women in executive bodies of trade unions and more women representation at the enterprise level institutions which will create more viable opportunities for women empowerment.

Earlier, Mr. Fasihul Karim Siddiqi, Secretary of the Local Network introduced the Seven Principles of Women Empowerment as a partnership initiative by the UN Women and the UN Global Compact. These principles, he elaborated, in fact provide a seven step guideline for how a vibrant business environment can be created for deriving maximum benefit from equitable gender empowerment as a guarantee for sustainable growth. Mr. Siddiqi called upon private and public sector business, government, workers and employer bodies, academia, media, judiciary, professional organisations and civil society to join hands in promoting these principles to strengthen our initiative to build a just, stable and socially responsive society in a better Pakistan.

Ms. Tazeen Aman, CEO, Innovative Keys, Mr. Mirza Raza Ali, Director Newports Institute and Multiple Council Chairman of Lions Clubs International, Ms. Khadija Soomro of Bardasht, a national NGO working for developing a more tolerant society, Mr. Feroze Tabani an industrialist and local network Steering Committee member also addressed the launching ceremony which was largely attended by representatives of business, workers, academia and civil society.

address said the launching of the seven principles of women empowerment in Pakistan, was aimed to help the private sector to focus on key elements integral to promoting gender equality at the work place, market place and community.

In his key note speech on the occasion, Vice Chairman of the House of Habibs, Mr. Sohail Ahmed, urged for more inclusion of women in executive bodies of trade unions.

Dr. Shahida Sajid, representing the Employers Federation of Pakistan, issued a statement saying that women were benefiting themselves by empowering women.

Companies have been able to achieve more than 10 per cent profit due to women who practically work with productivity, she said.

President, All Pakistan Trade Union Congress Shaukat Ali urged for more inclusion of women in executive bodies of trade unions.

He also called for more women representation in the enterprise level institutions which will create more viable opportunities for women empowerment.

Earlier, Secretary of the Local Network Farhat Karim Siddiqi introduced the Seven Principles of Women Empowerment as a partnership initiative by the UN Women and the UN Global Compact.

These principles, he elaborated, in fact provide a seven step guidance, can have a vibrant business environment can be created for deriving maximum benefit from equitable gender empowerment as a guarantee for sustainable growth.

He called upon private and public sector business, government, workers and employers, business, academia, media, judiciary, professional organizations and civil society to join hands in promoting these principles to strengthen our initiative to build a just, viable and socially responsive society.

Other speeches also addressed the launching ceremony which was largely attended by representatives of business, workers, academia and civil society. AFP

3rd and 4th Steering Committee Meeting of Global Compact Network Pakistan

3rd Meeting of the Steering Committee of the Global Compact Network Pakistan 2012-13 was held at the Campus Office of the Network (North Nazimabad Karachi) under the chairmanship of Mr. Ahsanullah Khan, President of the Network. The meeting transacted the following items of the Agenda:

- Approval of the minutes of the 2nd Steering Committee Meeting
- Discussion on the progress of the Joint Project 2012-13 with special observation of case study project
- Review of the outcome of Xth ALNF 2013 held at Geneva
- Review of the funding proposal initiated by the GCO and taken up by the LNAG for consultation with Regional LNs
- Approval of the Network's activity plan for the year 2013-14
- Participation in the forthcoming Leaders' Summit 2013
- Review of UNGC Membership Campaign
- Fixing the date for Annual Network Meeting and UNGC Best Practices Award Ceremony

The details of the deliberations recorded in the minutes of the meeting have been circulated among Steering Committee Members.

4th Steering Committee Meeting of the Global Compact Network Pakistan (2012-13) was held at the Federation House (FPCCI), Clifton Karachi. The meeting besides reviewing the follow-up on actions to be taken as per decision of the last meeting also particularly discussed in detail the feedback received from its member organizations for the funding proposal initiated by the LNAG and finalized its recommendation which the Secretary was authorized to convey to the GCO/LNAG. The meeting summarily recommended the preference for Fundraising Model 3 which suits the current stage of operation.

The members observed that the Global Compact is in its formation phase and our basic mandate had been to inspire companies to understand and appreciate the spirit of the Principles of Global Compact so that they embrace and integrate them into their work culture for attaining sustainability. In the context of an economic background like ours when business is confronted with a number of barriers such as law and order situation, energy crisis, and high cost of production, the very task of convincing companies to join Global Compact is proving difficult. If, at this stage they are asked to make some compulsory financial contribution for such membership, this will become an additional burden which in fact will discourage them from joining Global Compact. Even otherwise, the existing members have shown their discomfort to the idea of being subjected to a compulsory annual fund contribution.

It was also suggested during discussion that the first national need was to bring more and more business within the fold of Global Compact and to consolidate the efforts of the Global Network in keeping the members together on one platform for being able to benefit from the best practices of each other to attain their own sustainability.

Since the Global Compact was gaining some momentum in Pakistan, it will be advisable not to touch the matter of any fundraising for the period of 5 years, during which period the current practice of charging the nominal fees in the shape of annual subscription by the Network may be used for consolidating the efforts of the Local Network.

The current practice of GCO making a general request to companies for making voluntary contribution may continue. It was however emphasized that companies now contributing directly to the GCO may be requested to make their contribution through the Local Network.

In the ultimate analysis therefore, the Pakistani Network suggestion seems to be one of supporting Option 3 i.e. independent annual contributions with the suggestion that the organizations contributing to UNGC New York may do so either through the Local Network or under intimation to the Local Network.

LUMS BECOMES UNGC MEMBER

The Lahore University of Management Sciences (LUMS), after having been accepted as the UNGC member by the Global Compact Office New York, joins the family of over 10,000 UNGC signatories including 7000 businesses and 712 academic participants in 145 countries around the globe. In Pakistan, out of 110 signatories, LUMS becomes the 10th academic participant.

LUMS is the largest business school of Pakistan and is acknowledged globally for setting highest standard of quality in higher education. The joining of UNGC by LUMS is a great step forward in persuading the institutions of higher learning in Pakistan to join the Global Compact and support business and academia in embracing the 10 Principles of UNGC and Principles of Responsible Management Education for sustainable development.

The Global Compact Network Pakistan wishes to thank International Alert for facilitating this process. International Alert has been working with the UNGC Pakistan Network since 2012 as part of Plural Business Partnerships for Peace in Pakistan, which promotes the role that economics and business can play in supporting peace in the country. The Network hopes that this partnership will continue to invoke the cooperation of business, academia, and other stakeholders in promoting UNGC Principles in order to help shape and empower business to play its role in working for peace in the country and be competitive in the global market through sustainable value creation.

LUMS applies for UNGC membership

KARACHI: It is a matter of great pride and honor to inform that the Lahore University of Management Sciences (LUMS) has applied for membership of the United Nations Global Compact (UNGC).

LUMS is the largest business school of Pakistan and is acknowledged globally for setting highest standard of quality in higher education. Under the guidance of its dynamic Vice Chancellor, Dr. Prof. Adil Najam, who himself is a global champion of UNGC principles, the university is in the process of LUMS embracing the Ten Principles of UNGC. This inspires other leading business schools in Pakistan to not only pursue the principles of responsible management education but to also play their role in shaping the future of responsible business in Pakistan.

The Global Compact Network Pakistan wishes to thank International Alert for facilitating this process. Alert is committed to building Plural Business Partnerships for Peace in Pakistan and in respective cooperation with those of UNGC via its responsible business principles.

Involving academic institutions such as LUMS is important for a continuous engagement with the principles of responsible and sustainable business in Pakistan.

LUMS joining of the UNGC will prove to be a game changer in Pakistan's efforts to promote responsible business and will give the way for more Pakistani schools to join hands in strengthening sustainable business leadership in Pakistan. — PR

42ND BUSINESS TALK CSR ON DISASTER RISK REDUCTION & INFORMATION MANAGEMENT

The Global Compact Network Pakistan in collaboration with Employers' Federation of Pakistan, FPCCI and IMMAP organized its 42nd Business Talk CSR meeting on 28th August 2013 at the Federation House, Clifton, Karachi on the topic of the Disaster Risk Reduction and Information Management. The objective and theme of the event was to sensitise business enterprises about the need and importance of disaster risk reduction and management and the use of information management and tools for developing a preventing approach to combat the challenges which business face in different forms, both internally and externally.

The event was organised in special collaboration with IMMAP which is an international NGO engaged in efforts to alleviate the sufferings of victims of natural disaster and armed conflict by providing decision support services to humanitarian agencies through the management of reliable, timely and appropriate strategic and geographic information. It provides humanitarian responders with effective methods for reliably capturing, reporting, sharing and analysing information concerning the humanitarian situation according to baseline indicators and population needs. In Pakistan, IMMAP is providing crucial Humanitarian Information Management (HIM) support via an integrated approach through Pakistan National Disaster Management Authority (NDMA) and has been providing on going training in SRF to personnel from UN, NGOs, Government—line ministries, military, PDMA's and DDMA's. It was for the first time IMMAP was interacting with private sector business through this singular event.

Mr Pervaiz Ahmed, IMMO DRR/IM Trainer made a very impressive and revealing presentation on measures organisations could take in preparing themselves for reducing, mitigating and combating the risk and happening of natural and man made disasters. He also elaborated on the activities IMMAP was engaged in to support the Government and public sector in Disaster Risk Reduction and Information Management (DRRIM). He offered to closely work with GC Network Pakistan in providing IMMAP's services to business in providing DRRM training keeping in view the needs of different sectors.

Mr Pervaiz, highlighted the importance of this awareness by mentioning about a research which showed that a $ 1 investment in disaster risk reduction means a $ 7 improvement in Company's profitability.

Mr Ahsanullah Khan, President of the Network and, Mr. Siddique Sheikh of FPCCI in their addresses highly appreciated the presentation and welcomed a close collaboration with IMMAP in benefiting the business by their capacity building in this important area which will also help them in implementing the UnGC principles.

Mr Fasihul Karim Siddiqi, Secretary of the Network informed the meeting that an MOU was in progress with IMMAP to give a practical shape to this collaboration which will focus on providing a road map of building capacity of the private sector to combat the challenges of disaster management and risk reduction and also to look into the possibility of establishing a public private partnership forum to jointly strengthen the efforts and outcome of such collaboration.

The meeting which was attended by a cross section of business, NGOs, academia and civil society showed great interest in the initiative and pleaded for expanding the content and scope of this collaboration.

BUSINESS FOR PEACE: A BUSINESS LEADERSHIP PLATFORM

A STATEMENT OF SUPPORT

by Global Compact Network Pakistan

WE, GLOBAL COMPACT NETWORK PAKISTAN REPRESENTATIVES RECOGNIZE THAT:

In an interconnected world where the private sector, Governments and society have differentiated responsibilities but a shared interest in stability and prosperity, peace and development - business can be a powerful agent of change.

Conducting responsible business operations in all areas of the world and taking action to advance peace is in everyone's interest, including business. Conflict and instability not only impact people and the environment; they also pose risk to all parts of the business sector. Responsible behaviour requires proactive action to ensure business not only does no harm, but, where possible, contributes to development and assists society to overcome challenges to stability.

As business leaders, we welcome the recommendations outlined in the Guidance on Responsible Business in Conflict-Affected and High-Risk Areas. This voluntary guidance joins a range of tools and initiatives to support companies in developing policies and implementing responsible business practices aligned with the UN Global Compact Ten Principles in conflict-affected/high-risk areas - with a view to advancing peace.

We recognize that special attention needs to be given when operating in high-risk areas to ensure that the rights of stakeholders and vulnerable groups are respected and supported. Further, we believe that conflict-sensitive supply-chain management, responsible labour practices, combating corruption, responsible water management and caring for the climate all operate as foundational pillars of peace and stability. We are committed to play a constructive role in fostering peace, stability and development.

We, as Global Compact Local Network, express our willingness to engage in learning, dialogue and collective action to advance peace in the workplace, marketplace and local communities. We will support companies in implementing the Ten Principles when operating in high-risk or conflict-affected areas and, where possible, help to facilitate multi-stakeholder dialogue to enhance corporate engagement in priority areas.

Together with other stakeholders, we are beginning a new stage in an ongoing journey. A journey that aims to uncover the most effective ways the private sector can contribute to peace and to scale-up action towards it. We encourage business leaders, Global Compact Local Networks and others from around the world to join us on this journey, helping to achieve the foundational goal of humanity - peace.

The Millennium Development Goals

The Millennium Development Goals (MDGs) - eight goals with 18 targets - to be achieved by 2015, are drawn from the Millennium Declaration that was adopted by 189 nations in 2000.

1. Eradicate extreme poverty and hunger

5. Improve maternal health

2. Achieve universal primary education

6. Combat HIV/AIDS, malaria and other diseases

3. Promote gender equality and empower women

7. Ensure environmental sustainability

4. Reduce child mortality

8. Develop a global partnership for development

THE TEN PRINCIPLES OF THE UNITED NATIONS GLOBAL COMPACT

HUMAN RIGHTS

Principle 1 Business should support and respect the protection of internationally proclaimed human rights; and

Principle 2 Make sure that they are not complicit in human rights abuses.

LABOUR

Principle 3 Businesses should uphold the freedom of association and the effective recognition of the right to collective bargaining;

Principle 4 The elimination of all forms of forced and compulsory labour;

Principle 5 The effective abolition of child labour; and

Principle 6 The elimination of discrimination in respect of employment and occupation.

ENVIRONMENT

Principle 7 Businesses should support a precautionary approach to environmental challenges;

Principle 8 Undertake initiatives to promote greater environmental responsibility; and

Principle 9 Encourage the development and diffusion of environmentally friendly technologies.

ANTI-CORRUPTION

Principle 10 Businesses should work against corruption in all its forms, including extortion and bribery.
